Revealing the BMW X7 in a world of luxury

BMW X7 LAUNCH

With BMW launching its flagship of the X family in the biggest luxury market globally, we were honored to be selected as the show direction and production partners for this incredible launch event in shanghai. Hosted in the Columbia Circle in the heart of Shanghai, we created “The X7 Mansion”. Bringing in the synchronized swimmers team “aquatics” and building a ring of lights around the swimming pool in the center of the venue was a perfect location to reveal THE X7.

SBF show director Jason Kirby and team worked on all the show elements in and around the pool whilst the SBF content team built the vertical content that was reflected in the pool. With all the top management from Munich in attendance giving the show great feedback, it was a pleasure to be part of this incredible launch for BMW.

What we did during Covid-19?

Overview

The pandemic makes us have to adapt and survive, for a moment we are silent to think and strategize in defense and attack at the same time. So in April we turned our headquarters into a creative vehicle that could provide the best service in adapting to a pandemic.

We named it SF53 Creative Space, a place where during the pandemic and beyond we can continue to work and provide our best services for the event and creative industry.

Professionally managed by Flash Communications, Triangle Systems, and Next Creative Studio, which globally provide more services by integrating creative, technical, and live streaming services with the best devices. With complete services provided at our place, it is hoped that every customer can become a collaborative partner in the work process.
